Ethno-cultural mandate or ethno-cultural casting statement: PH Theatre believes in diverse representation on/off stage, and in our programming. We believe that an artist's identity, ability, cultural, and ethnic background informs, but does not limit, what they bring to a role. In casting, we consider how the artist's identity and skill sets can contribute to the ensemble, artistic aesthetic, and the dialogue the production creates with the audience.

Additional information:

Production name: SLEEPING BEAUTY DREAMS by Amaranta Leyva Pérez Gay, a co-production with Mexico's Marionetas de la Esquina Date production rehearsal/job starts: 01/02/2018 to 02/11/2018.

Deadline to submit: 09/08/2017

PH Theatre is looking for 4 actor/puppeteers for our co-production with Mexico City's Marionetas de la Esquina. The play, originally commissioned by the Kennedy Center, features both table top and rod puppets designed by the award the winning company. We are looking for 4 actors with strong puppeteering skills to perform the play in English. The production will run in our theatre for two weeks, then tour locally to theatres in Surrey and Coquitlam. Please send resumes to PH Theatre. We will contact artists selected from resumes to audition for the director and puppet choreographer.

Equity members will be seen first at all open audition calls. Equity members cast in this production will be engaged under an Equity form of contract. CAEA members: please bring your membership card to the audition.
